MARKET PLACES

Monroe 1

The Times-Dispatch

GLASGOW URGES CITY TO EMPLOY REAL GAS EXPERT

Man of Foremost Managerial and Engineering Ability Needed.

TO MAKE KNOWLES HIS LIEUTENANT

Thinks Present Superintendent Should Be in Charge of Manufacture, With New Commercial Gas Expert Under Him in Charge of Ser-charge of manufacture, and with a new commercial gas expert as his lieuthe Administrative Board, Mr. Glas-

the recommendations on th

him to effect further economies in manufacture.

"The difficulty will be to find the man. There are very few men available who are big enough for this job, as I see it, and I urge you not to shrink from paying an adequate salary—$7,500 is not too much.

"I have no one in mind, but I shall be glad to help you to make the wisest selection—which is, beyond all question, the greatest service I can possibly render you. In doing this, I would be assuming grave responsibility to both sides, not only to you, but to the expert selected; for it will be about as casy to charm the birds from the trees are to persuade a man who is already at the top to enter the service of a municipality. We have got to show him that Richmond is not that kind of a municipality. We have got to show him that Richmond is not that kind of a municipality; that the capital of the GML benefit of the cold them that Richmond is not that kind of a municipality; that the capital of the GML benefit of the cold them that the content of the cold office with the cold office is a municipal employment bureau.

This Country Does Not Propose to Extablish protectorates.

Washington, D. C. December 8.

President Wilson told callers to day that the United States did not wish to extablish a protectorate over any country of Central America or over any country of Central America or over any of the globe.

Published reports that the United States contemplated a new and farrance in the globe.

Published reports that the United States contemplated a new and farrance in the globe.

Published reports that the United States contemplated a new and farrance in the globe.

Published reports that the United States contemplated a new and farrance in the free of the globe.

Sides the Administrative Board control over the location and construction of public dumps.

Give the Administrative Board control over the location and construction of public dumps.

Solve the Administrative Board the vector of City Taxes by the people. Solve the suggestion that the report might be suggesti the Old Dominton is prepared to demonstrate that it can and will administer its gas service in the ringle interest of 'efficiency,' and absolutely regardless of 'influence,' "  $\,$

No Extensive Enlargement.

Mr. Glasgow sees no immediate need for the rehabilitation or extensive alteration of the producing plant. It is greatly to the credit of your superintendent, considering the administrative conditions formerly prevailing, that the works are in reasonably good condition, and that the natural advantages of the location have been studied and utilized.

'In most respect, the works represent what was good practice as re-sently as ten years ago, and it is nearly that long since the last important reconstructions were planned, made enormous strides in the past dozen years, and to (Continued on Thirteenth Page.)

Results

The Times-Dispatch printed on last Sunday

789 WANT ADS.

This great number of Want Ads is not unusual; it's usual because the public desires results.

NEW CABINET CHOSEN

Senator Doumergue, at Request of Polavare, Forms French Body.
Paris, December 8—Senator Gaston Doumergue, acting on the request of President Poincare, succeeded in forming a new French Cabinet to-day, The new Cabinet is as follows:
Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs—Gaston Doumergue.
Minister of Interior—Rene Renoult.
Minister of Justice—Bienvenue Martin

Minister of War-Joseph J. B. E. oulens. Minister of Marine—Ernest Monis. Minister of Finance—Joseph Cail

thinets.
The Paris press receives the annuarement of the formation of the new Cabinet with disapproval and predicts a short life for it.

m in Charge of Service and Sales.

MOTION TO ACCOUNT CHARGE

Judge Takes Request of Defense Under Advisement Till To-Dny, Shelbyyille, Ind. December 8.—The motion to have the jury acquit Dr.
William B. Craig on a charge of having in the defense in Craig's trial here to day, was taken under advisement by Indian as his lieutenant in of manufacture, and with a samercial gas expert as his lieutenant in charge of service and sales for increasing the efficiency of or increasing t i that Dr. Knabe was margered to proposition that Dr. Craig did it," Spaan said. he State rested to-day with the spletion of the examination of Miss gust Knabe, cousin of the dead

GOVERNMENT BUYS BIG TRACT Police and Health

GUATEMALA WOULD FIGHT

WOMEN ARE SUPREME

EXEMPT FROM TAXATION

HARRISON IS PRESIDENT

Recently Elected Chief of Southern
Also Made Hend of Western Road.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Cincinnati, Ohio, December S.—
Fairfax Harrison, recently elected president of the Southern Railway Company to succeed the late William W.
Finley, was to-day elected president of the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific Railway Company. Mr. Harrison was already a member of the board of directors and of the executive committee of the board. mittee of the board.

COUNCIL REFUSES TO GIVE GREATER

POWER TO BOARD

LONG DEBATE ON HELD TO BLAME CHARTER CHANGES

Amendment Is Carried Author- Virginia Senator Points to In- Will Urge Upon Congress No izing Council, in Its Discretion, to Place Fire, Police and Health Departments Un-

the City Council, in its discretion, to confer upon the Administrative Board the management and jurisdiction over the Fire, Police and Health Departments. The amendment reported by the Charter Chapter Committee, there-

Vonderlehr Motion Loses.

Just before the vote on the amended resolution was taken Councilman Vonderlehr sought to have incorporated into the resolution a charter amendment making members of the Administrative Board ineligible for appointing istrative Board ineligible for appointment to any municipal office until a syear after he has censed to hold office as a member of the board. The amendment was lost by a vote of 15 to 3, Councilmen Lamsden, Hadden and Vonderlehr alone supporting it.

The resolution as finally approved, includes recommendations authorizing.

S499,000,000 due to banks outside of views freely. There was a pause after the President finished speaking, and with an direction for hot having quite been satisfied. Dr. Shaw resumed:

"Since we are not members of any political party," she asked, "who is going to speak for us—there is no one to speak for us—there is no one to speak for us—there is no one derlehr alone supporting it.

The resolution as finally approved, includes recommendations authorizing upon them, although they had satisfied that the total loans are fired to banks outside of views freely.

There was a pause after the President finished speaking, and with an direction for hot having quite been satisfied. Dr. Shaw resumed:

"Since we are not members of any political party," she asked, "who is going to speak for us—there is no one to speak for us—there is no o

Sentiment of honra.

The debate, which raged for three hours around the three contested amendments, developed a distinct undercurrent of commendation for the work of the Administrative Board. Estate of General Grant Pays Nothing to State.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, December S.—Surrogate
Fowler decided to-day that the estate of General Frederick D. Grant is exempt from taxation in New York State. He based his decision upon the contention of Mrs. Grant, the widow, that her husband was a resident of Gevernor's Island, Federal territory.
General Grant left his estate to his wife.

Liappicon is Preciperat

the free hand in city administration that the Council intended to give it when it authorized its creation. defeat the admendments, he said, was to take a step backwards. The same position was taken by Councilman Rat

The attack upon the disputed amend-(Continued On Second Page.)

C. & O. TERMINAL, NORFOLK. Passengers using C. & O. Fast Trains to Norfolk are landed in Hotel District. Three Fast Trains Daily with Parlor Cars.

SWANSON DRAWS SHARP RETORTS TO HIS ATTACKS

RICHMOND, VA., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1913.

Minister of Finance—Joseph Caillaux.

Minister of Public Instruction—Renc
David.

Minister of Public Works—Fernan
David.

Minister of Commerce—Louis J.

Minister of Public Instruction—Renc
David.

Minister of Public Instruction—Renc
David.

Minister of Public Morks—Fernan
David.

Minister of Commerce—Louis J.

Minister of Commerce—Louis J.

Minister of Public Instruction—Renc
David.

Minister of Public Instruction—Renc
David.

Minister of Public Morks—Fernan
David.

Minister of Commerce—Louis J.

Minister of Commerce—Louis J.

Minister of Public Morks—Fernan
David.

Minister of Public Works—Fernan
David.

Minister of Commerce—Louis J.

Minister of Public Morks—Fernan
David.

FOR 1907 PANIC

ability of Richmond Banks to Get Money Due Them From New York as Example to Enforce Argument for Pending Bill.

dition of the New York banks during the 1907 panic, and drew a vigorous protest from Senator O'Gorman, who World's Foremost Expert.

World's Foremost Expert.

Washington, December 8.—The National Forest Reservation Commission, after Gas Company, and is ranked in the Appalachian and White Mountains for watershed protection purposes, 10-day approved the purchase of yirginia, including 1890 acres, en-the regional reserve banks. Stockholders of local banks are held under

Voted to a public use by the owner.

Give the Administrative Board control over the location and construction of public dumps.

Give the Administrative Board control over the location and construction of public dumps.

Give the Administrative Board the flower to approve and fix grades.

Provide for the election of the Collictor of City Taxes by the people.

Vonderlehr Motion Loses.

Just before the vote on the amended

Know to be without real foundation."

Comes Back Sharply.

Senator Swanson came back sharply with statistics from the comptroller's office to show that in August, 1967, the New York City banks owed other national banks $213.000.000 and owed State banks $196.000.000, or a total of State banks $196.000.000 due to banks cutside of the responsation of the Collictor of City Taxes by the people.

Vonderlehr Motion Loses.

Just before the vote on the amended in slience.

He had not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own views on woman suffrage, so he did not been asked for his own view

SUFFRAGISTS GET LITTLE COMFORT FROM PRESIDENT

FOLLOWING RULE SET FOR HIMSELF

Legislation Not Subjected to "Organic Consideration" by Party-His First Time Face to Face With "Votes for Women."

Wilson to-day, personified by sixty marriage ceremony meant only be-members of the National American Wo-man Suffrage Association, who pleaded minute that I was married, and have

It was the first time the President had been brought face to face with the issue in a formal way. He told his callers that whatever might be his personal views on woman suffrage or any other subject, he had made it a rule not to urge legislation upon Congress that had not been the subject of "organic consideration" by the Democratic party, of which he considered himself his opinion about the organization of a standing committee in the House of Representatives to consider woman suffrage, he had expressed himself in favor

Some of the members of the delega-tion were disappointed, some felt en-couraged, others were noncommittal. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw expressed the view that the President's indorsement of the idea of a special committee in the House was all that could have been expected under the circumstances.
It was a quiet, earnest group of suf-fragists who stood in a circle, with the President in its centre, in the Whit House offices, Most of them had walked, in defiance of a freezing gale, enthusiastic about their mission, and determined to get a definite expression from the chief executive. They consti-tuted the special committee appointed

Fig. 1. December 8.—"Anything like second that the works complex a scientific gas engineer, as well as a new commercial expert, speaks as follows: The particle from your present policy of seeking advice from outside consulting engineers; but it is far more complexed to the most survive and the most stimulate for the most service, and in the most infinite concentrated upon the most will be concentrated upon the most will be concentrated upon the most important department of the business, where his training especially equips him to effect further economies in manufacture.

The PORTS ARE UNTRUE

This Country Does No Propose to Easily will be to find the man. There are very few men available who are big enough for this job, as I see it, and I urge you not to stablish a protectorate over any counsiling and not expected the sale of the business, where his training especially equality will be concentrated upon the most ministry of the concentrated upon the man. There are very few men available who are big enough for this job, as I see it, and I urge you not to stablish a protectorate over any counsiling and the contract of the contract of Listens in Silence.

The President listened in silence.
He had not been asked for his own

They Have Pinal Say in Presidents
Household.
Special of the Times Dispatch 1
Special of the Times Dispatch 1
Wilson told callers that the place of some will be decided upon by Mrs. Wilson is said to be solicitions, and that time was more than the duties of his officers of the city's representation in the General Section of the City's representation in the General Res. Wilson is said to be solicitions, and giving cities control over a list of the City's representation will be a considered by the count of the state of the Presidents of the state of the President Section of the City's representation in the General Res. Wilson is said to be solicitions, and giving cities control over a list of the case of the President Section of the City's representation in the General Res. Wilson is said to be solicitions, and giving cities control over a list of the City's representation in the General Res. Wilson is said to be solicitions, and giving cities control over a list of the City's representation in the General Res. Wilson the state of the President Section of the City's representation in the General Res. Wilson the state of the President Section of the City's representation in the General Res. Wilson the state of the President Section of the City's representation in the General Res. Wilson the state of the President Section of the City's representation in the General Res. Wilson the decident upon by Mrs. Wilson the city's representation with the city's representation with the decident upon by Mrs. Wilson the city's representation with the decident upon by Mrs. Wilson the city's representation with the control of the cold that the unit of control of the cold that the unit of the constitution of the control of the cold that the unit of the constitution of the c ture every national bank was violating it, asked: "Is it fair to criticize them for stopping at some point, when they knew they were breaking the law we had imposed upon them?"

Laying a foundation upon which to build his case, Senator Root obtained. Laying a foundation upon which to build his case, Senator Root obtained (Continued on Thirteenth Page.)

President Wilson's address to the delegation was, in part, as follows:

"I want you, ladies, if possible, to Columbia for safekeeping. Two other ingrees, indicted with Madison, were acquitted.

MARRIED AND DON'T KNOW IT Husband and Wife Thought They Were

Only Engaged.

Only Engaged.

[Special to The Times, Dispatch, I New York, December 8.—Miss Lillian D. Post, of this city, lived for ten years within two blocks of her busband without ever suspecting she was married. In fact, a Supreme Court referee decided to-day that she never was married, although she has been a wife all the time. The paradox is explained by her assertion that she thought the marriage ceremony was only a formal betrothal.

tonic.

They have met frequently on the street, and their greeting has always been "Good day. Miss Post, how are you this morning?"

"Very well, Mr. Lary, thank you."

And then husband and wife have passed along just like any casual acquaintances.

passed along just like any casual acquaintances.

Only once—on September 11, 1999, at the funeral of Miss Post's father—did Lary enter her home after the marriage. He testified to this effect in helping his Platonic bride have the marriage knot untied.

Miss Post told how she and Lary went before Rev. Dr. Hartley, paster of the Hope Baptist Church, and had a ceremony performed.

"No, I did not consider it a marriage," she testified, "because I always supposed that two people who are not residents of a State and don't intend it to be a marriage are not readly marit to be a marriage are not really mar-been living right along as a single man. There was never any suggestion we should live together."

SAYRES ATTEND BANQUET

Go to Authors' Club Affair With Ambassador Page, and Do Shopping. bassador Page, and Do Shopping.

Some of the subject, he had made it a rule not to urge legislation upon Congress that had not been the subject of "organic consideration" by the Democratic party, of which he considered himself the spokesman.

The President said that when members of Congress consulted him he would freely give his views, and he added that, having already been asked his opinion about the organization of the subject of "organization of the consideration" but the family, later they drove with the ambassador based of the ambassador based of luncheon with the family, later they drove with the ambassador based of the corrupt and dishonsent of the gamblers, at the gambl tinguished American residents will be

House Gives Sanction to Churchill's idea of Navai Holiday.

Washington, December 8.—By a vote of 217 to 11 the House to-day passed the Hensley resolution requesting President Wilson, so far as he can do so, with due regard for the interests of the United States, to co-operate with the suggestion of Winston Churchill, Lord of the British Admiralty, for an international mayal holiday of one year.

The resolution expressed it to be the opinion of the House that Mr. Churchill's suggestion offers means of lessening immediately the enormous gamblers out of business and would gamblers of the scenario immediately the enormous gamblers of the scenario immediately the enormous gamblers out of business and would gamblers out of business and would

The resolution expressed it to be the opinion of the House that Mr. Churchill's suggestion offers means of lessening immediately the chormous burden on the people and avoiding the waste of investment in war material. A motion to recommit the resolution, made by Representative Moore, of Pennsylvania, who led the opposition, was voted down by 184 to 40. Mr. Moore's resolution carried with it the substitute requesting the President to use his influence to consummate an agreement with all nations for a suspension of a naval program for one year, but containing no reference to Great Britain or Winston Churchill.

Spectre.

I Special to The Times-Dispatch 1
Washington, December 8.—Eat nuts and live cheaply was the advice today by Congressman B. P. Harrison, of the Sixth Mississippi District, as a solution for the high cost of living.
Representative Harrison followed up his advice by distributing among his colleagues bushels of Mississippi pecans grown in his home district and named for him the "Pat Harrison pecans."

ducts, four months; lab or kids and products, three months; eggs and products, three months, or seven months when stamped; butter and products, three months, or seven months when stamped; butter and products, three months, or seven months when stamped; butter and products, three months; the and products, three months; eggs and products, three months; or seven months when stamped; butter and products, three months; eggs and products, three months; or seven months when stamped; butter and products, three months; eggs and products, three months; eggs and products, three months; or seven months when stamped; butter and products, three months; or seven months when stamped; butter and products, three months; eggs and products, three months; or seven months when stamped; butter and products, three months; poultry and products, three months; or seven months; eggs and products, three months; poultry and product

WILL NOT INTERFERE

Washington Taking Only Friendly Interest in Elections.

Washington, D. C. December 8.— that the cold storage people have been the United States does not intend to able so far to write many of the State supervise or interfere with approaching laws regulating the cold storage ques-

FOOD GAMBLERS ARE VULTURES OF

Dinner Table.

COLD STORAGE MEN FORCE PRICES UP

McKellar, in Championing Bill for Government Regulation, Flays the Interests Which Corner Life's Necessities and Commit Despicable Crime Against Public.

Washington, December 8 .- "Voraclplunderbund of food sharks" were haracterizations applied to cold storige speculators who corner perishable foodstuffs to boost prices, by Representative McKellar, of Tennessee, when he spoke to-day, championing his bill for Federal regulation of the cold stor-age business.

Saying that his proposed legislation was not designed to injure the cold storage business as such, Mr. McKellar declared:

"The drastic features of the bill are

Later they drove with the ambassador to the embassy offices, remaining outside in the automobile while he transacted business.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in sightseeing and in doing a little shopping.

Miss Page will give a luncheon to the Sayres at her home in Grosvenor Square to-morrow, at which many distinguished American residents will be the sayres and the sayres at her home in Grosvenor square to-morrow, at which many distinguished American residents will be compared to the sayres at her home in Grosvenor square to-morrow, at which many distinguished American residents will be compared to the sayres at her home in Grosvenor square to-morrow, at which many distinguished American residents will be compared to the sayres and the sayres and the sayres are sayres at her home in Grosvenor square to-morrow, at which many distinguished American residents will pre-serile both prison terms and heavy fines for violation of its provisions, would make it illegal to ship adulterated and misbranded food products in interstate commerce, and would limit the periods in which food products may be held in storage without becoming

Corner Food Deliberately. Reviewing the data produced by the Senate committee which investigated

Late to-morrow afternoon Mr. Page and his guests will go to Cambridge for the Trinity College commemoration fenst. The Sayres will spend the night as guests of the master of Trinity.

Reviewing the data produced by the Senate committee which investigated the high cost of living, Mr. McKellar submitted further statistics intended to show that packers and warehousemen corner markets on foodstuffs demen corner markets on foodstuffs de-liberately to increase profits. He as-HENSLEY RESOLUTION PASSED serted that these men would insist that the Federal government should leave

HOW TO LIVE CHEAPLY

Ent Nuts and Cut Out Old High Cost
Spectre.

Under the McKellar bill, cold storage for beef is limited to seven months; veal, two months; pork and products, four months; sheep or goats and products, four months; lab or kids and pecans."

According to Representative Harrison, a bushel of pecans contains many times the nourishment of a like amount of beef, and is cheaper and easter to handle, besides requiring no coak and fronts us, or prove a panacca for conditions every one admits are bad. States have cold storage limitation laws, but they do not seem to be effective. Canada has legislation substitute and storage limitation substitute. sidizing cold storage warehouses. Prime Minister Border, of Canada, says that Canada is suffering from the high cost of living, and intimated that cold storage might be responsible for it in some measure. It is my opinion that the cold storage people have been dump them into cold storage in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and other large centres of population. Later, they are put on the market, principally as fresh eggs, and the people get some wholesome and some unwholesome eggs. The same is true to a greater extent of poultry, meats, game

"None of the laws for nutritious and sanitary cold storage is observed by the cold storage men. It is essential that a national law should be passed."

Mr. McKeliar gave a list of 'he principal food products going into cold storage. Meats led with a value of $1,500,000,000, and poultry, $45,000,000. The value of eggs was $21,000,000.

"None of the laws for nutritious and

Object of His Bill.

'The object of my bill is to aid both the producer and the consumer, to limit the middleman to a reasonable profit, and to put the speculator and gambler out of business," concluded McKellar.

"I think of all the effcontery I ever heard of is the statement by Louis F. (Continued on Twelfth Page.)

GREAT CHRISTMAS EDITION The Christmas Edition of The Times-Dispatch will appear next Sunday, December 14,

when the Feature Section will carry as a front page in colors a Richmond Christmas scene in old St. John's Church yard 100 years ago. The back page of the Feature Section will contain an especially prepared story, describing vividly Christmas scenes in Virginia a century ago. The picture in St. John's Church yard will be very attractive, showing the edifice in which Patrick Henry deliveded his famous speech. The feature is unique, and will appeal to every student of the early history of Virginia and the South. Place your orders at once with newsdealers, or call Circulation Department, Monroe 1.